WEEK OF SAD CEREMONY TO END TOMORROW

Announcement Made of Final Arrangements for Rites Tomorrow; Services in Throne Room, Pall-Bearers and Procession to Mausoleum

FUNERAL PLANS FOR TOMORROW IN BRIEF

At 7 o'clock tonight the body of the late Queen Liliuokalani will be removed from Kawaiahae church to the throne room of the former palace.

Gates of the palace grounds will be closed at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning to all persons save those with passes or cards of invitation.

All societies and organizations participating in the procession must report to Captain Robert Parker, grand marshal, before 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

At 10 o'clock will begin the funeral services in the throne room, Right Reverend Henry Bond Restarick officiating.

LINE OF MARCH

Immediately after the services, at approximately 11 o'clock, the procession will start, the line of march being out of the palace to King street, up King to Nuuanu, and up Nuuanu to the mausoleum grounds.

All Boy Scouts are to report at the capitol grounds at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow morning. They will be on guard duty in the grounds, and the Queen's Own will march in the procession. Report with staves and uniforms as far as possible.

Persons with tickets to the throne room will enter by the mauka doors of the capitol. No persons will be admitted after 9:45 o'clock.

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

The honorary pallbearers are as follows: Governor Pinkham, Senator Miles Polinder, Representative J. C. McLaughlin, Charles F. Chillingworth, president of the territorial senate; Speaker H. L. Holstein, Chief Justice Robertson, Attorney W. O. Smith, Vol. C. P. Laukae, E. Faxon Bishop, Brig. Gen. John P. Wiser, Captain George R. Clark and Brig. Gen. Samuel I. Johnson.

FOLLOWING closely the customs of past years for the funeral processions of Hawaiian rulers, the procession tomorrow for Liliuokalani will include many thousands of people and scores of Hawaiian societies and other organizations.

Invitations to the funeral services are passes to the capitol and mausoleum grounds. The automobile entrance to the capitol grounds for those invited will be Richards street; the exit, the Hotel Street gate.

An officer will be in charge of parking cars. The cars of the officials are to be parked on the right hand side of Miller street facing the capitol. Cars of the invited public will be parked on Punchbowl street, above and facing Hotel.

Headquarters of Captain Parker, grand marshal, will be the King street gate.

No vehicles or automobiles will be allowed to enter the mausoleum grounds. Arrived at the grounds, automobiles must deposit their passengers at the gates. The automobiles will then proceed up Nuuanu to Wyllie street, across Wyllie to Liliha, down Liliha to Judd, and park on Judd street in single column facing Nuuanu street.

A field artillery battery will fire a salute on the grounds opposite from the mausoleum grounds. Persons are warned to stay out of the line of fire.

The following streets will be closed to all other traffic shortly before the funeral procession starts: King from Punchbowl to South street; Nuuanu from King to above Wyllie; all side streets crossing the line of march.

Unless special arrangements are made with the funeral authorities, all persons participating will provide their own automobiles.

All Boy Scouts will appear in the parade with muffled drums and will do

CONGRESSIONAL PARTY PAYS ITS RESPECTS

Members of the congressional party in Honolulu today visited Kawaiahae church in a body at 11 o'clock this morning. They were met at the door by the ushers, who conducted them to seats just outside the limits marked by the great gilt globe of the Kawaiahae tabu stick. The visit was brief, and marked only by the solemn silence that pervaded the church at that particular moment.

Governor Pinkham is expected to pay formal respects at the bier some time this afternoon.

PUBLIC WEAL CLAIMS FIRST RECOGNITION IN LAND FIGHT

Congressmen Arrive at Tentative Conclusion That Legislature Carrying Out Wishes of People Must Decide on Remedy, or Else Special Commission From Congress Should Study Problems

AFTER having come into contact, first hand, with Hawaii's land problems and homesteading puzzles, the congressional delegation as a whole, has in its present frame of mind come to the conclusion that one of three things is necessary before an adjustment beneficial to the territory at large can be made. They are:

The next legislature in compliance with the wishes of the voters must thresh out the matter, formulating a program of remedy that will represent the desires of the people; or
A commission of six members from congress must visit the islands for a period of three to six months, studying the legislative, judicial and economic needs of the territory, getting at the root of the problem and reporting back their recommendations.
The wishes of the people, the real home-making element, must prevail; not the views of politicians and special interests. The desires of the individual must be subordinated to the general welfare.
All agree it is a big problem. Many have different views on different points.

CLOSE CALL IN DIXMUDE LINE FOR U. S. MEN

Luckily Escape Unharmful From Bad Quarters; Americans Again in Artillery Fight With Teutons; More Casualties

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
HAPARANDA, Sweden, Nov. 17.—It is learned here that at the Padograd intervention, 30,000 Lottish troops sided with the Maximalist and Bolshevik factions and have defeated Kerensky.

PEROGRA, Russia, Nov. 17.—The fate of the women and soldiers captured by the Bolsheviks in the fighting here causes much speculation. They are said to have been transferred beyond Believastrof, Finland, and to have been treated harshly. The British embassy is unable to get trace of them.

BRITISH FRONT IN BELGIUM, NOV. 17.—Five members of the American congressional party visiting in the war zone today had a narrow escape from death in the trenches on the Dixmude line.

They were caught by German machine gunners with a heavy fire while they were inspecting the trenches.

Those who figured in the narrow escape are congressmen C. Dill and Albert Johnson of Washington, Clarence Miller of Minnesota, Charles Timberlake of Colorado, and former Congressman Stout.

None of the party was hit, though the shots fell around them in a shower. A little later a large explosive shell burst only ten yards away, but none of the congressmen was struck by the flying fragments.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, NOV. 17.—The American and German gunners are having another brisk exchange of artillery fighting. Further casualties have occurred among the American troops, largely from shrapnel wounds. One shell hit an American gun, causing some of the casualties. Some of the Americans wounded in the last two days have died.

BRITISH WARSHIPS REPULSE TEUTONS

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 17.—British light naval forces have engaged a number of German light cruisers off Helgoland, the German stronghold. The Germans were repulsed and were chased by the British vessels.

The British land forces are making progress at Passchendaele, Belgium.

ITALIANS CLAIM GERMAN INVADERS NOW HELD AT BANKS OF PIAVE RIVER

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
ROME, Italy, Nov. 17.—The Germans and Austrian forces who had succeeded in crossing the Piave river at Brenta are today being pressed back steadily. On other sectors a thousand Germans have been taken prisoner.

The Germans also crossed the Piave river at Fellina and destroyed the town of Fagere, but were held at the embankment by the defending Italians.

The Italians captured 600 in the fighting at Fagere and 300 at Fellina.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—The Italian embassy here has received word that the king of Italy has turned over his beautiful villa at Monza to the refugees from Venice and neighborhood, who are fleeing from the menace of German approach.

BERLIN, Germany, Nov. 17.—The Teuton forces operating in the north of Italy have stormed Monte Prassian, between Brenza and the Piave river. Eight hundred Italians were captured.

NEW CHINESE CABINET TO BE COALITION FORM

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
PEKING, China, Nov. 17.—President Tuan Chi Jui's cabinet has resigned, and it is expected that Hsu Shi Chang will form a coalition cabinet.

NEW DRAFT REGULATIONS FOR DEPENDENT CLASS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—Under the new draft regulations men with dependent relatives are more secure from being called into active service.
